FOREIGN BILL STAMPS.

Foreign bills of exchange, drawn in sets, require a 1s. 6d. stamp for every bill of each set, provided the sum do not exceed L. 100; and larger amounts pay as follows:—

Above 200		5	0	4 0

PENALTIES.—Writing any bill of Exchange, domestic or foreign, upon unstamped paper, L. 50. Post dating bills of exchange, L. 100. Drawing a check at more than ten miles from the place of payment, L. 100. Receiving the same, L. 20. Bankers paying the same, L. 100.

THE TIDE TABLES on the foregoing pages have been deduced from formulæ, furnished by the laborious investigations of the Marquis de la Place, on the theory of the Tides; and as each calculation has been separately checked, and other means used to avoid error, their accuracy may be confidently depended upon. When strong westerly winds, however, prevail for any length of time in the basin of the Atlantic Ocean, they sensibly affect the tides; while other causes combine to produce small irregularities, which no ingenuity nor science can accurately predict.

To find the times of high water at other places in Great Britain and Ireland, see the General Tide Table in the fourth part of the book.

The Tables are expressed in mean time, or that shewn by a properly regulated clock or watch.

A GENERAL INDEX, containing a recapitulation, in alphabetical order, of the entire contents of the book, immediately follows the TITLE PAGE

STREET DIRECTORY.

A COMPLETE DIRECTORY to the streets, squares, and public places of every kind, as well as to the situations of the respective places in the map, is combined with the general index, immediately following the TITLE PAGE

EXPLANATORY NOTES.

I. This mark—h. occurring frequently in the alphabetical arrangement, indicates that the conjoined address is the private residence of the individual.

II. The word “Mr,” or “Esq.” placed before the name of any merchant or tradesman in part second, also indicates that the conjoined address is the private residence of the individual.

III. This mark * occurring very frequently in part second, signifies, that the persons to whose names it is attached declare themselves to be entitled to vote at the election of a member of Parliament in Edinburgh or Leith; but, as numerous persons have neglected or declined to make the distinction, it is not to be understood that the absence of the mark indicates, in all cases, the inability to vote.

IV. To find any place in the Map see the General Index, in which, opposite to the name of every street, there is a number. Then find the same number in the map margin; and, by passing your finger in a straight line from it to St Andrew square, you will touch the place you are seeking.

V. Map boundaries. The city of Edinburgh, as defined by the Reform Bill, is surrounded by a scarlet line; and Leith, as defined by the Reform Bill, is also encompassed by a scarlet line. The present boundaries of the Royalty of the City; the Regality of Canongate, situated partly in Edinburgh, and partly in Leith; the Barony of Wester Portsburgh; the Barony of Easter Portsburgh; the precincts of the sanctuary of Holyrood, and the jurisdiction of Leith, have all been ascertained, and they are marked in faint lines in the map, as a guide for colouring. But, in consequence of the great probability, amounting almost to certainty, that these distinctions will be immediately done away with, it would only have rendered the map incorrect, a few weeks after the date of its publication, to have distinguished them by colours; still, as these distinctions were promised in the prospectus of this Directory, they will be inserted, without charge, for any person who may require them, on the book or map being sent to the publisher, who will only detain it a few hours. It is only necessary to state, farther, that, however carefully executed, the colouring of these divisions is any thing but ornamental.

ERRORS.—At page 26 the names of the Hon. Robert Hamilton, and David Cormack, esq. have been placed at the top of the second column instead of at the bottom of the first. Both the gentlemen live in Abercromby place. In the alphabetical list the name of the Rev. Robert Bowie, chaplain of the Charity Workhouse, and resident therein, is omitted. In the classified list the name of John Johnstone, junior, stone merchant, Port Hopetoun, is omitted. In alphabetical list, for John Barry, see British Hotel, or Hopetoun rooms; and for T. C. Hoe, see Rainbow Coffeehouse, these names being omitted under the heads B. and H. The above are all the errors we know of, which are attributable in any way to ourselves. Since printing, the following has been handed in for insertion: Imperial Fire and Life Insurance Company, William Giffen, 21 Albany street, agent.

ACCOUNTANTS.

Various persons who are clerks in houses of business, professional and mercantile, are accustomed to designate themselves "writers and accountants." Such being the case, some of them are necessarily placed under these heads, since it is impossible, within the short period allotted for the getting up of a Directory, to ascertain who are and who are not "writers and accountants," as these terms are understood and used by professional men. Writers who are partners in W.S. firms, are also liable to erroneous classification, in consequence of the non-distinction, in some cases, of the W.S. from his partner in the returns for the Directory.

TAILORS.

An absurd distinction is attempted to be made in Edinburgh, between persons in an extensive way of business and those in a smaller, by the adoption by the former of the term clothier instead of tailor. Did any real difference exist between the two classes other than merely in extent of business, it would be easy to classify them accordingly, but there is none. We therefore hold every man who takes orders for men's exterior wearing apparel to be a tailor; and as that word, and it only, is generally used by the first men of similar business in London, some of whom rank, in point of wealth, with nobility itself, we adopt it without hesitation as the title of this list, which comprehends tailors of every admeasurement.

GRAY'S

ANNUAL DIRECTORY.

PART FOURTH.

LISTS, TABLES, AND A VARIETY OF MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION.

GENERAL TIDE TABLE.

To ascertain the time of High Water on any given day, morning or evening, at any of the following places, find the corresponding tide in the table entitled "High Water at Leith," at the beginning of the book, and add to, or subtract from, the same, the number of hours and minutes below mentioned, according as the tide at the place you refer to may be later or earlier than it is at Leith. For example, referring to the Tide Table for Leith, we find that the time of high water at Leith on the morning of the first of January, 1834, will be at 22 minutes after 6 o'clock. The time of high water at London being 26 minutes later than at Leith, the tide at London on that morning will consequently occur at 12 minutes before seven.

LEITH SIGNALS. — The signals hoisted at the end of the Pier at Leith, to show the depth of the water, are as follows: — When the ball is at the top of the mast, the depth of water is nine feet — the same with a pendant underneath, ten feet — the pendant above the ball indicates eleven feet — two balls, twelve feet — two balls with pendant below them, thirteen feet — the pendant with the two balls below it, fourteen feet. And whenever any of the above signals are placed half-mast down, the water is half a foot deeper than as above stated.

There is always, in fact, a depth of two feet nine inches more than is indicated by the signals.

INHABITED HOUSES.—The duty chargeable annually against the occupant of a house of ten to nineteen pounds rent, inclusive, is 1s. 6d. per pound. On any rent from twenty to thirty-nine pounds inclusive, the charge is 2s. 3d. per pound; and on rents of forty pounds and upwards, to whatever amount, the charge is 2s. 10d. per pound.

MALE SERVANTS.—The duty on male servants per annum is, for one, L.1, 4s.—Two, L.3, 2s.—Three, L.5, 14s.—Four, L.8, 14s.—Five, L.12, 5s.—Six, L.15, 9s.—Seven, L.18, 7s. 6d.—Eight, L.22, 8s.—Nine, L.27, 9s.—Ten, L.33, 5s.—Eleven, L.42, 1s. 6d.—Twelve, L.45, 18s.—and for all above the number of twelve, the duty is L.3, 16s. 6d. each.

The duty of L.1, 4s. is payable for every male person employed in any of the capacities described in schedule C. No. 1, and not being a servant to his employer, if the employer shall otherwise be chargeable to the above duties on servants, or for any carriage, or for more than one horse kept for riding, or drawing any carriage, and if the employer shall not be chargeable to such other duties, then the sum of 10s. is payable for every such male person employed.*

* In numerous instances throughout this book, the Assessed Taxes and Tide Tables to wit, an attempt has been made to reduce to a readable form sundry matters which are usually given in terms the most ambiguous and unintelligible; and it is hoped that in no case has the sense been misinterpreted. The above

BACHELORS' MALE SERVANTS.—The duty chargeable per annum to Bachelors on male servants is, for one, L.2, 4s.—Two, L.5, 2s.—Three, L.8, 14s.—Four, L.12, 14s.—Five, L.17, 5s.—Six, L.21, 9s.—Seven, L.25, 7s. 6d.—Eight, L.30, 8s.—Nine, L.36, 9s.—Ten, L.43, 5s.—Eleven, L.53, 1s. 6d.—Twelve, L.57, 18s.—and for all above the number of twelve, the duty is L.4, 16s. 6d. each.

TRAVELLERS OR RIDERS, employed by any merchant or trader, where one only is kept, L.1, 10s.; and where more than one is kept, L.2, 10s. each.

CLERKS, BOOK-KEEPERS, OR OFFICE-KEEPERS.—Where only one is kept, L.1; and where more than one is kept, L.1, 10s. each.

WAITERS.—In inns, taverns, coffee-houses, &c. L.1, 10s. each.

COACHMEN.—Let on job, L.1, 5s. each. The employers of persons kept for the purpose of driving any stage coach or carriage, or of guarding the same, are subject to this duty.

EXEMPTIONS from the foregoing and following duties. Sons under 21 years of age, employed in any of the capacities enumerated in schedule C. numbers one and three, as in lists numbers one to six of notice paper. Male persons under 15 years of age, employed as shopmen, warehousemen, or porters. Male persons employed in manufactories, under clerks or managers, in certain cases. Horses driven in hackney coaches, or carriages used as such, and licensed by the commissioners of stamps, or by any person authorized by them in any part of Great Britain.

CARRIAGES WITH FOUR WHEELS, or more. The duty chargeable per annum on one such carriage kept for private use, is L.6.—Two, L.13.—Three, L.21.—Four, L.30.—Five, L.39, 7s. 6d.—Six, L.49, 4s.—Seven, L.59, 10s.—Eight, L.70, 8s.—Nine, L.81, 13s. 6d. On carriages of the same description let on hire, with post horses, the duty, on any number, is L.5, 5s. each carriage. Coachmakers keeping carriages for the purpose of being let on hire, without horses, are charged L.6 for every such carriage. And for every additional body used on the same carriage, the charge is L.3, 3s.

CARRIAGES WITH TWO WHEELS.—The duty on every carriage with two wheels is L.3, 5s.; but if drawn by two or more horses, or mules, it is L.4, 10s.; and for every additional body used on the same carriage, the duty is L.1, 11s. 6d.

EXCEPTIONS.—Carriages with four wheels of less diameter than 30 inches, drawn by any pony or ponies, mule or mules, exceeding 12, but not exceeding 13 hands high, pay L.3, 5s. instead of the higher duties; and carriages of this description are altogether exempt from duty when drawn by ponies or mules not exceeding twelve hands high.

A carriage with four wheels, as in list No. 10 of notice paper, drawn by one horse, pays L.4, 10s. instead of the higher duties.

A carriage with four wheels, as in lists numbers 1 and 2 of notice paper, used by any common carrier principally in the carriage of goods, &c. but occasionally used for the conveyance of passengers, when no stamp office duty is exigible, pays L.2 10s.; and a carriage of similar kind, and used for similar purposes, but with less than four wheels, pays L.1, 5s. instead of the higher duties.

paragraph, however, is an exception, for after reading it over a dozen times, I am compelled to give it in its original form, its meaning, if it have any, being to me perfectly unintelligible.—EDITOR.

On every carriage with less than four wheels, of the following description, the duty is L.1, 10s. It must be kept for private use only, and not for hire. It must be drawn by one horse, mare, gelding, or mule, only, and not otherwise. It may be built and constructed with any materials, and in any form, but without any head or covering, or any lining fixed or not fixed, or any spring or springs of iron, steel, or other substance, either wholly or in part metallic; other than iron tips, caps, or swivels, each not exceeding three inches in length, and painted of a different colour, to distinguish the iron from the spring, and at the extremity only of each spring of the carriage. And the original price of such carriage, together with the cushion or cushions, or any other article or thing, used with or belonging to it, must not have exceeded the sum of L.21.

On every carriage, with less than four wheels, of the following description, the duty is L.1, 10s. It must be entirely constructed of wood and iron, with any spring or springs wholly or in part of metal, but without any covering other than a tilted covering, and without any lining, apron, or cushion. The seat must be fixed, or suspended by slings or braces. And such carriage must be kept as a common stage cart, and used truly and without fraud, in the affairs of husbandry, or in the carriage of goods, or in the course of trade. But it may be occasionally used by the proprietor, or by his family or servants, but by them only, for riding therein, provided that it exhibit, legibly and conspicuously painted, the proprietor's name and residence, and the words "Common Stage Cart;" and provided also that it be not on any occasion let or used for hire or profit.

On any and every horse, mare, gelding, or mule, not otherwise chargeable to the duties on horses used for riding, or drawing carriages, but used in drawing any common stage cart as above described, the duty is 10s. 6d.

Every horse, mare, gelding, or mule, used by any common carrier, is not charged more than 10s. 6d. payable by schedule F. of the acts relating thereto.

HORSES.—The duty chargeable per annum upon all horses kept for riding, or drawing carriages, is as follows:—One horse, L.1, 8s. 9d.—Two, L.4, 14s. 6d.—Three, L.7, 16s. 9d.—Four, L.11—Five, L.13, 18s. 9d.—Six, L.17, 8s.—Seven, L.20, 18s. 3d.—Eight, L.23, 18s.—Nine, L.27, 6s. 9d.—Ten, L.31, 15s.—Eleven, L.34, 18s. 6d.—Twelve, L.38, 2s.—Thirteen, L.41, 8s. 9d.—Fourteen, L.44, 12s. 6d.—Fifteen, L.47, 16s. 3d.—Sixteen, L.51—Seventeen, L.54, 8s.—Eighteen, L.58, 1s.—Nineteen, L.61, 15s.—Twenty, L.66. Horses let on hire without post duty, and race horses, pay each L.1, 8s. 9d. Horses rode by butchers in the exercise of their trade, pay each L.1, 8s. 9d.; but where two only are kept, the second is charged 10s. 6d. Horses not exceeding the height of 13 hands, pay each L.1, 1s. One horse used by a bailiff on a farm, is charged L.1, 5s. Other horses 13 hands high, and mules, not included in any of the above descriptions, pay each 10s. 6d.

DOGS.—The annual charge for every greyhound is L.1; and for dogs of every other description, when one only is kept, the charge is 8s.; but when two or more are kept, it is 14s. each. All dogs under six months old are exempt, and persons compounding for a pack of hounds are charged L.36.

HORSE DEALERS.—Every person exercising the trade of a horse dealer, L.12, 10s. a-year.

HAIR POWDER.—Persons wearing or using hair powder, pay L.1, 8s. 6d. per annum.

ARMORIAL BEARINGS.—Persons who use

armorial bearings, and who keep a coach or other taxable carriage, pay L.2, 8s. per annum. Persons not keeping any such carriage, but who are liable to house or window duty, pay L.1, 4s. per annum; and persons who neither keep any carriage nor are liable to either house or window duty, pay 12s. per annum.

GAME.—The charge for an ordinary licence to kill game is L.3, 13s. 6d. per annum. A person duly appointed and registered as gamekeeper upon any lands, provided such person be a servant to any one duly charged with the servant duty, for keeping him, pays L.1, 5s. per annum. A person duly appointed and registered as gamekeeper upon any lands, but not otherwise a servant on whom the servant duty is in any way charged, pays the ordinary licence, L.3, 13s. 6d. per annum.

PENALTY.—Every person not having duly paid the game duty, as above, is liable to a penalty of L.20 for using any dog, gun, net, or other means for the purpose of taking or killing any game, or any woodcock, snipe, quail, landrail, or coney, or who shall take or kill, or assist in so doing, any of the same, by any means whatever.

HUMANE SOCIETY.

The Leith Dispensary and the Edinburgh and Leith Humane Society were united in 1825. Rooms, 17 Broad Wynd, Leith. Andrew Snody, S.S.C. secretary. James Urquhart, apparatus and house-keeper. These institutions, which are supported by voluntary contributions, afford medical aid and medicines to the diseased poor gratuitously, and the means of resuscitation to persons apparently drowned.

DIRECTIONS FOR THE RECOVERY OF PERSONS APPARENTLY DROWNED.

PRECAUTIONARY. — Lose no time — avoid all rough usage of the body — never hold it up by the feet — do not roll it on casks — do not rub it with salt or spirits — do not inject tobacco smoke, or infusion of tobacco.

RESTORATIVE. — Send quickly for medical assistance, but do not delay the following means:

I. Convey the body carefully, with the head and shoulders supported in a raised position, to the nearest house.

II. Strip the body and rub it dry; then wrap it in hot blankets, and place it in a warm bed in a warm chamber. A child may be placed between two persons in a warm bed.

III. Wipe and cleanse the mouth and nostrils.

IV. In order to restore the natural warmth of the body, move a heated, covered, warming-pan, over the back and spine. Then put bladders or bottles of hot water, or heated bricks, to the pit of the stomach, the armpits, between the thighs, and to the soles of the feet. Then foment the body with hot flannels; but, if possible, immerse it in a warm bath, as hot as the hand can bear without pain, as this is preferable to the other means for restoring warmth. Rub the body briskly with the hand; but do not suspend the use of the aforesaid means at the same time.

V. In order to restore breathing, introduce the pipe of a common bellows (where the apparatus of the Society is not at hand) into one nostril, carefully closing the other one and the mouth; at the same time drawing downwards and pushing gently backwards the upper part of the windpipe, to allow a more free admission of air. Blow the bellows gently, in order to inflate the lungs, till the breast be a little raised; the mouth and nostrils should then be set free, and a moderate pressure made with the hand upon the chest. Repeat this process till life appears.

VI. Electricity to be employed early by a Medical Assistant.

VII. Inject into the stomach, by means of an elastic tube and syringe, a tumbler of warm brandy and water, or wine and water.

VIII. Apply sal volatile or hartshorn to the nostrils.

The above treatment is to be persevered in for three or four hours. It is not to be supposed that persons are irrecoverable, because life does not soon make its appearance.

ON RESTORATION TO LIFE. — A tea-spoonful of warm water should be given; and if the power of swallowing be returned, small quantities of warm wine, or warm brandy and water, should be given. The patient should be kept in bed, and a disposition to sleep encouraged. Great care is also requisite to maintain the restored vital actions; and, at the same time, to prevent undue excitement.

RECEIVING HOUSES. — Broad Wynd, Leith, No. 17, the Society's Rooms. — Salamander Street, Alex. Macfarlane. — Dock Gates, George Cameron. — Albany Street, Leith, D. Beveridge, grocer. — Newhaven, Peacock and Chain Pier-Inns. — Water of Leith, John McLeod, spirit dealer. — Canonmills, William Laurie, spirit dealer.

DRUGS are deposited at the upper Drawbridge, Dock-gates, and the Pier Lighthouse; also at Leith-mills, Bells-mills, and Coltbridge.

APPARATUS at Lochend during the skating season.

— and so on in proportion, the postage increasing progressively one penny for a single letter for every like excess of distance of 100 miles.

Ireland, by way of Holyhead, 3d.; Donaghadee, 4d.; packet-rate, over and above all other rates.

Guernsey and Jersey, 3d.; packet-rate, over and above all other rates.

LIMITATION OF WEIGHT. — PENNY-POST.—Letters for the Penny-post delivery must be under four ounces weight.

GENERAL POST.—All double, treble, and other letters and packets whatever, (except by the penny-post,) pay in proportion to the respective rates of single letters; but no letter or packet to and from places within the kingdom of Great Britain, together with the contents thereof, is charged more than a treble letter, unless it weigh an ounce, in which case it is rated as four single letters. Letters exceeding one ounce weight pay an additional postage for every quarter of an ounce, or fractional part thereof.

SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' LETTERS.—

Single letters from any seaman in his Majesty's navy, or from any sergeant, corporal, or soldier, in his Majesty's service, within any part of his Majesty's dominions, on his own private concern only, not to be charged more than one penny each, to be paid when put into the Post Office:—the name of the writer, his class or description, and the name of his ship, regiment, &c. must be given by himself; and the officer actually having the command must sign his name, and the name of the ship, regiment, &c. he commands.

Single letters to any seaman, or soldier, &c. under the same restrictions, to pay one penny each, at the office where the letter is put in; to specify on the superscription the class of the person and the name of the ship or regiment, &c. to which he belongs; such letter not to be delivered to any person but the one to whom it is directed, or to some person appointed to receive the same, under the handwriting of his commanding officer.

Not to extend to commissioned or warrant officers, midshipmen, masters' mates, captains' clerks, or schoolmasters in the navy; or to commissioned or warrant officers in the army.

PENALTIES.—Officers indorsing letters, knowing them not to be on the private concern of such seamen or soldiers under his command, to forfeit five pounds for every offence.

Officers indorsing letters of seamen, &c. not under their command, to forfeit five pounds.

Any person directing a letter to any seaman, &c. intended for any other person, to forfeit five pounds.

Any person procuring any seaman, &c. to obtain the signature of his officer, which shall not be on his own private concern; or if any seaman, &c. obtain his officer's signature for any purpose contrary to what is here intended, each and every person so offending to forfeit five pounds.

One-half of any of the above sums to the use of his Majesty, the other to the informer, recoverable before any Justice of the Peace where the offence is committed; in default of payment, to be committed to the house of correction, for any space not exceeding one month, or till the penalty be paid.

BANK NOTES AND DRAFTS.—Persons wishing to send bank notes or drafts by post, are advised to cut them in halves, and to send them at two different times, waiting till the receipt of one half is acknowledged before the other is sent.

MONEY, RINGS, &c.—When money, rings, locketts, &c. are sent by the post from Edinburgh, particular care should be taken to deliver the same to the clerk, at the window at the General Post Office; and when any such letter is to be sent from the country, it should be delivered into the hands of the post-master; but, it is to be observed, that the office does not engage to insure the party from loss.

MONEY ORDER OFFICE.—For the security of sums of money not exceeding five guineas, sent in letters by post, the post-master general has authorized the establishment of the Money Order Office, where orders are given (payable at sight) on the post-masters in Scotland, England, and Ireland. Attendance from 11 to 3 daily, Sundays excepted.

SHIP LETTERS.—Letters coming from on board any ship are chargeable with an additional rate, for a single letter, of 8d.

Letters conveyed outwards, in sealed bags, are chargeable with half-packet postage, which must be paid when put into the office.

INDIA.—The rate outwards to the East Indies is twopence per package under three ounces; if above that weight, one shilling per ounce, in addition to the inland rates. Postage to be paid.

Letters from the Cape of Good Hope, the Mauritius, Ceylon, the East Indies, New South Wales, and Van Diemen's Land, are liable to a sea postage of fourpence each, if not exceeding three ounces, and to one shilling per ounce above that weight, in addition to the inland rates.

By the ship letter act, it is enacted, that every master of a vessel, immediately on his arrival in port, shall take the whole of his letters to the Post Office, under the penalty of £200; and the captain must sign a declaration that every letter has been so delivered, before his vessel can be permitted to report to the Customhouse.

Vessels to and from Ireland, or Coastwise, are not allowed to convey letters, under a heavy penalty.

FRANKS.—No Member of Parliament can send more than ten, nor receive more than fifteen letters free daily. One ounce is allowed for a frank: when a letter is above that weight, it is charged with postage.

PATTERNS.—Letters containing patterns, open at the ends, not exceeding one ounce, pay only as single letters; provided no writing is contained in the letter, except the price of the patterns enclosed, and the name and address of the persons sending them; if closed at the ends, accompanied by a letter, double postage is chargeable if under an ounce.

PRIVATE BOXES.—For the accommodation of persons to whom it is a matter of sufficient importance, letters are kept at the Post Office in private bags, or boxes, until sent for by the parties to whom they belong. Apply for particulars to the clerk at the window.

NEWSPAPERS.—Newspapers, and other printed publications liable to the stamp duties, may be sent to any of his Majesty's colonies or possessions beyond seas by the packet boats, upon the payment of one penny halfpenny for every such paper, such payment to be made at the time the paper is put into the Post Office, provided the same be sent in covers open at the sides, and be put into the Post Office in any town of Great Britain or Ireland, on any day within seven days of the day on which the same shall be published, such day to be ascertained by the date of the paper.

If any papers intended to be sent from Great Britain and Ireland, which are liable to the stamp duties, are not duly stamped, such papers are to be stopped, and transmitted to the Commissioners of Stamps.

Newspapers printed in the British colonies and brought to Great Britain and Ireland by packets, or by private ships, in covers open at the sides, are charged a postage of three pence upon each paper.

And if any other paper or thing whatsoever be inclosed or concealed in such printed papers, or if there be any writing other than the subscription upon such papers or their covers, they are charged with treble the postage of a letter.

RECEIVING HOUSES.—For morning Mails, the boxes close at 10 evening.—For first Penny Post delivery, they close at a quarter past 7 morning.—For Glasgow Mail and Ireland, at a quarter past 10 morning.—For second Penny Post delivery, at a quarter past 12 noon.—For North Mail, Portobello, Musselburgh, and Stirling posts, at 4 afternoon.—For third Penny Post delivery, at a quarter past 5 evening.—And for Glasgow night and Dumfries Mails, at a quarter before 8 evening.

Baxter's Place.—Canongate, No. 286.—Castle street, No. 21.—Duke street, No. 9.—Fife place, No. 6.—Grassmarket, No. 116.—Hanover street, No. 37.—High street, 231.—Holyrood.—India street, No. 3.—Lauriston place, No. 67.—Nicolson street, No. 105.—Pitt street, No. 3.—St Anthony's place, No. 1.—And William street, No. 5.

PENNY POST RECEIVING HOUSES.—Stockbridge, box closes at 3 afternoon.—Warriston, box closes at 3 afternoon.—Armiston place, Newington, box closes at 12 and 3.—Boroughmuirhead, box closes at half-past 10, and 4.—Newhaven, box closes at 11, and half-past 3.

Both general post and penny letters are put into all the boxes; but these latter, designated "Penny Post," pay an extra penny postage.

LATE DELIVERY OF LETTERS.—Many persons are in the habit of detaining the letter-carriers at their doors an unnecessary length of time, thereby causing delay in the delivery of letters both to themselves and others; and a request, from the proper authorities, has, from time to time, been published, that such practice may be discontinued. Here, as in London, the postmen knock or ring twice in rapid succession, to distinguish themselves from other visitants, and servants ought to be instructed to pay instant attention to every such application, as well as to be provided with sufficient change to meet the claims of the postmen.

SCOTTISH POST TOWNS.

A List of the Post Towns in Scotland, with the postage of a single letter to each from Edinburgh, and the time of departure. The postage is, in each case, one halfpenny more than the sum stated below, all letters passing by a mail coach through any part of Scotland being subject to that additional rate of postage; but the halfpenny is not doubled on double letters. All letters go daily, unless marked otherwise, by reference to the foot notes. m. means morning, e. evening, and p. past.

CARRIERS.

A LIST OF CARRIERS, WITH THE NAMES OF THE PLACES WHERE THEY PUT UP, AND THE TIME OF THEIR DEPARTURE FROM EDINBURGH.

✂ The arrivals, as well as the departures of carriers, are generally given in other Edinburgh lists of carriers, but the information is, in ninety-nine cases out of every hundred, superfluous. Pretty generally speaking, a carrier comes as often as he goes, and the days whereon he arrives are therefore sufficiently shewn by those on which he departs.

for each subsequent quarter of an hour. The fares to be charged either by distance or time, in the option of the coachman.

HALF FARES.—For returning by the same coach, when the charge is by distance, half fares only are exigible. Tolls in addition. No king's duty chargeable.

STANDS.—When a coach is brought from any stand other than the nearest, the charge is 6d. extra. For a list of the stands, see the 5th regulation.

NIGHT FARES.—From 11 to 12 at night, fare and a quarter; from 12 to 1 morning, fare and a half; from 1 to 6 morn. double fare. No additional fare at night or morning to and from the theatre.

DETENTION.—If a carriage be detained more than 10 minutes at taking up or setting down, a charge for time in addition to distance to be made.

REGULATIONS.—1. That no carriage shall ply for hire within the City and Suburbs, or Port of Leith, without being approved of and licensed by a Magistrate. Each licence shall continue in force for two years only.

2. That each licensed carriage shall have a number issued for it, which shall be affixed, together with the owner's name, in legible letters, of a colour different from the carriage, at least one inch in length, on each door, immediately below the window-frame; and the number shall also be distinctly painted on the centre of the back of the carriage, or on a piece of tin fixed under the back window.

3. That each licensed carriage shall be always provided with horses in good condition; and the carriage, including the cushions, steps, springs, blinds, windows, and check-strings, as also the harness of the horses, shall always be kept in good order and repair. The coachman, when driving, shall always keep the check-string in his left hand.

4. That each coachman shall be cleanly in his person, and conduct himself in a proper, civil, and decorous manner on all occasions.

5. That the stances shall be south College street, Tron Church, Prince street, east and west ends, George street between Hanover and Frederick streets, Queen street, east and west ends, and Union place, or at such other places as may from time to time be appointed. While the carriages are at the stances, the coachman shall either sit on the box, or stand at the horses' heads.

6. That there shall not be fewer than 6 carriages at each stance every week-day, at 9 o'clock morn., and on Sunday, one fourth of the carriages licensed shall attend at each stance from 10 morning to 10 night, in rotation of numbers.

7. That when a carriage is at a stance, it shall be held to be disengaged. The coachman shall not inquire where he is to go previously to being engaged, nor plead a pretended prior engagement, nor draw off the stance on account thereof, the proof of a real engagement lying with the coachman. He shall wait, either at taking up or setting down a party, as long as he shall be required. When a carriage is engaged, the hour shall be punctually kept, and the arrival immediately announced.

8. That carriages shall be hired from the stance nearest the residence of the party.

9. That all parcels or other articles left in carriages shall be immediately returned to the owner if known, or if not known, shall be sent to the Council Chamber.

10. That the fares shall be charged in terms of the preceding table.

HACKNEY COACHES.

11. That a copy of these regulations shall be kept by each coachman; and the regulations shall be enforced in the Council Chamber, at the instance of the Procurator-Fiscal, by penalties not exceeding L.1 sterling for each offence, or by withdrawing the licence. The proprietor shall be answerable for his servants.

EDINBURGH, June 1833.

JONATHAN DAVIDSON & Co. IRONMONGERS, 123, HIGH STREET, and SMITHS, NORTH CANAL STREET, in calling the attention of their Friends and the Public to their present stock of Grates, Fenders, Fire-Irons, Britannia Metal, Tin, and Japanned Goods, &c. have, in a particular manner, to recommend the very great improvements they have made on Smoke and Wind-up Jacks, Cradle Spits, Dripping-pan Stands, Cottage Ovens, and Back-smoke Dampers, as they are constantly getting fresh proofs of their giving entire satisfaction. — June, 1833.

STATIONERY AND MUSIC WAREHOUSE, No. 30, BERNARD STREET, LEITH.

PHILIP WATT, Stationer and Music Seller, No. 30, Bernard Street, has at all times on hand an extensive Stock of ACCOUNT BOOKS, of the best materials and workmanship, and bound in the patent manner.

P. W. solicits a comparison of his Account Books, at their respective prices, with those of any other house in town, with the utmost confidence of their maintaining his claim to a liberal share of public patronage.

WRITING PAPERS in great variety, from the lowest to the finest qualities, which cannot be surpassed in cheapness; together with every other article in the Stationery trade, of the first quality, and on moderate terms.

MUSIC.—P. W. requests the attention of his friends and the public to his Stock of Music, which is constantly replenished by the addition of every new composition of merit. — June, 1833.

ARTISTS' AND MECHANICS' TOOLS.

THE SUBSCRIBERS having made considerable additions to the above department of their business, invite an examination of their Stock, which will be found to embrace the various Tools used by Dentists, Jewellers, Engravers, Clock and Watchmakers, Engineers, Joiners, Cabinetmakers, &c.

RUSSELL & CLARK.

IRONMONGERY WAREHOUSE,
154, High Street.

JOB AND POST HORSES.

ISAAC SCOTT returns his most grateful thanks to his numerous employers for the very liberal patronage and support he has received for the last five years he has been in business. He begs to inform them that he has taken the Premises which have been so long occupied by Mr D. WRIGHT, in Young Street Lane, Charlotte Square, where his business will in future be conducted.

From the very superior accommodation he possesses, and his determination to keep none but the best description of Horses and steady Drivers, and by the strictest personal superintendence, he hopes to procure a still greater share of public encouragement and favour.

Hearse and Mourning Coaches. Lock-up Coach-Houses, &c.

EDINBURGH, June, 1833.

HOUSE DECORATION.

JAMES ROWLEY, HOUSE & POONAH PAINTER, respectfully intimates, that Specimens of POONAH PAINTING, in exact imitation of Paper Hangings, are ever ready for inspection at his SHOP, No. 27, GREENSIDE STREET. This style of Decorative Painting was introduced by him into Edinburgh in 1828; and, notwithstanding the particular prejudices which all new systems have to encounter, its decided and multiplied advantages gradually, but surely, won its way to the favour and estimation of all; and references of the first rank can be given of the fastness of its colours, and the undiminished beauty of its tints, since its first introduction. It may likewise be added to the list of the advantages attendant upon the adoption of this style of Decoration, that the harbours of vermin is utterly prevented—an evil so frequently complained of in Paper Hangings; while it cannot be distinguished from it but by its superiority, in having no joinings—costing only half the price—cleaning equally as well—lasting equally as long—and occupying in its execution only from one to two days.

MUSLIN & AYRSHIRE NEEDLE-WORK.

WAREHOUSE, 15, HANOVER STREET.

J. LEES, begs respectfully to call the attention of the LADIES to his Stock of Ayrshire Needle-work, which, for moderation of price, beauty of work, elegance of style, and variety of pattern, cannot fail to give satisfaction.

J. L.'s Stock of Plain and Fancy Muslins, Shirtings, Black Silks, Ribbons, &c. &c. is very complete. Families going to India are requested to favour his goods with an inspection.

READY MONEY.

Gold Chains, Seals and Keys, Silver, Steel, and Gilt Guard Chains, with every other article connected with the trade.

200, HIGH STREET, Edinburgh, June, 1833.

LABORATORY,

100, SOUTH BRIDGE, EDINBURGH,

(Formerly SCOTT's, latterly SCOTT & ORR's.)

THE PUBLIC is very respectfully informed, that the above ESTABLISHMENT, which has existed for upwards of FIFTY YEARS, is now conducted in all its Branches, by

JUNE, 1833. E. D. ALLISON, M.D.

Physicians' and Surgeons' Prescriptions, Family Recipes, and Orders from the Country, addressed, 100, South Bridge, most carefully attended to by Dr ALLISON himself, or by Assistants, who have been several years in the Establishment.

* PATENT MEDICINES, &c. AS USUAL.

COAL.

JOHN NOBLE, COAL-MERCHANT, Port-Hopetoun, takes this method of intimating to his Friends and the Public, that he continues to receive regular supplies of CANAL COAL.—J. N. deals also in the SHERIFFHALL and EDINBURGH and DALKEITH RAILWAY COAL.

Orders, sent by Post or otherwise, promptly executed.

PORT-HOPETOUN, June, 1833.

IMPROVED VENTILATING WARM AIR STOVES,

FOR DWELLING HOUSES, CHURCHES, SCHOOLS, HOSPITALS, AND OTHER PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

ROBERT RITCHIE, IRONMONGER, &c. to the King, 241 HIGH STREET, and 86 GEORGE STREET, respectfully intimates, that he has for many years devoted much attention to the improvement of STOVES, for the proper warming of buildings with heated air; and from the practical experience resulting from extensive employment, he can with confidence recommend them to the Public.

R. RITCHIE's chief object, in warming buildings with air, has been to combine the most approved scientific principles with practical utility. He has spared no trouble to obtain a thorough knowledge of these points, and has had the opportunity of availing himself of the opinions of many of the most eminent men of science in this country. From John Robison, Esq. Secretary to the Royal Society of Edinburgh—a gentleman admitted, not only here, but on the Continent, to be thoroughly conversant with this subject—he has received very valuable suggestions, not merely on the best construction of Stoves to ensure durability, and to avoid all risk of injuring the purity of the air, but also as to the most philosophic application of the warm air to ensure effect, and to combine warmth with ventilation; and who, in giving his decided approval of the Stoves manufactured upon the principle of the Advertiser, is well able to appreciate the merit or demerit of the many rival plans and inventions which are constantly brought forward for this purpose.

In addition to numerous satisfactory references which R. Ritchie has it in his power to give, both to public and private buildings, which have been warmed by his Air Stoves, wherein their advantages have been evinced, he can also, with much satisfaction, refer to the high testimonial he lately received from the Society of Arts for Scotland, who, in awarding to him their Second Honorary Medal, were pleased to compliment him upon—"the valuable information he had brought forward on the construction of Stoves, and proper application of heated air to the warming and ventilating of buildings,"—a subject, to use their own words, "of importance to the health of all classes of the community."

From the advantages accruing from the possession of a large MANUFACTORY, with an IRON FOUNDRY connected with it, R. Ritchie is enabled to execute orders for Iron Work or Castings in the best manner.

Orders sent to 241, High street, or 86, George street, Edinburgh, will at all times receive the utmost attention; where also an extensive assortment of General and Furnishing Ironmongery is always to be seen.

IMPROVED VENTILATING WARM AIR STOVES,

FOR CHURCHES AND OTHER PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

G. and J. HADEN, Engineers, &c. of Trowbridge, Wiltshire, take this opportunity of stating, that they continue to fix up these Stoves in all parts of the United Kingdom; and respectfully to acquaint the Nobility and Gentry of Scotland, that James Haden, one of the partners, has, for several years past, spent the greater part of his time in Scotland, attending personally to the proper fixing of their Stoves; and that he has had the honour of being employed to warm the two Churches of St Giles, St John's Chapel, Prince Street, the Libraries of the Faculty of Advocates and of the Society of Writers to the Signet, the Bank of Scotland, &c. in Edinburgh, all of which give satisfaction; also the Fever Wards of the Royal Infirmary, Glasgow, in which the whole body of air in the wards can be changed twice every hour. G. & J. H. have also erected a considerable number of Stoves in the Mansions of the Nobility and Gentry in the Counties of Mid-Lothian, Perth, Forfar, Lanark, Renfrew, Dunbarton, Selkirk, Peebles, &c.

J. Haden may be heard of at all times by applying to Mr Dunn, Optician, No. 50, Hanover Street, Edinburgh.

MORISON & CO.'S WRITING INKS.

AS there are many imitations of these tried and much approved Writing Inks in the market, and as Ink is frequently hawked about and sold as Morison and Co.'s, which is not of their manufacture, the Subscribers take this opportunity of warning purchasers against such imitations, and of stating, that the only inks warranted of their making are in stone and glass bottles, sealed "MORISON, PERTH," having labels bearing a facsimile of their signature. To render the imitations more easily distinguishable from the genuine, and more readily detected, all the Ink sent from the Warehouses of the Subscribers, from and after

THE 1ST DAY OF JUNE, 1833, will have NEW LABELS, on which the signature will be more distinctly impressed than heretofore—to imitate which is felony.

The Subscribers respectfully solicit the attention of Mercantile Gentlemen to the quality of the Copying and Office Inks to be issued with these New Labels, as they have been in preparation for some time, and combine fluidity with a strength of colour not hitherto attained in any mercantile inks.

D. MORISON, JUN. & CO.

PERTH, May, 1833.

DUTCH MINERAL FUSIBLE CEMENT.

THIS CEMENT has been for some years used on the Continent, and is possessed of two invaluable properties, viz. resistance to water and damp, and powerful adhesiveness. Of the latter property it may be observed, that wood may be united to wood, iron, stone, brick, tiles, or slate, and any of these bodies to each other indiscriminately, by means of it. It may be exposed to all weathers and climates, without its weight being diminished, or its strength or virtue deteriorated, properties peculiar to itself.

It is difficult to point out all the uses to which this valuable Cement may be applied. Among the most prominent may be named, the formation and lining of tanks or cisterns—the lining of damp rooms or cellars—coating the outside of houses, which would effectually keep out damp—for gutters on the roofs of houses—for building turrets or minarets of churches—light-houses, where the firmest union of parts is required—the abutments of a series of arches—fastening iron railings in stone copings—preserving wood in damp foundations, by coating it with Cement—in jointing stone copings, rendering the use of lead or iron cramps unnecessary—lining the inside of churches, to preserve them from damp—and the inside of boxes for packing merchandise, which requires to be preserved from sea damp—and uniting iron pipes, either for water or gas, more effectually than by lead, or any other substance, and for which purpose a mixture compound of two parts of dry sand, with one part of Mineral Cement, may be applied with great advantage and economy.

It is also applicable, in its pure state, for coating the bottoms of Canal boats, instead of copper.

The Subscriber has used it successfully in public works, and has sent it to noblemen and gentlemen, who have repeated their orders.

London brushes will be supplied for applying the Cement, and, if required, properly qualified workmen can be sent to any distance to lay it on.

IMPROVED AERATED SODA WATER.

MESSRS PUGH & PLEWS beg to announce, that they continue to manufacture this cooling and refreshing beverage with the same scrupulous care, which has gained for them so extensive a sale throughout Scotland.

It may not be unnecessary to mention, that their Soda Water is a pure Solution of Carbonate of Soda, supersaturated with Carbonic Acid Gas; is perfectly transparent, free from admixture of any foreign substance to produce artificial flavour, and will be found on analysis to be a very superior preparation to what is usually sold under the name of Soda Water.

To judge of good Soda Water, it should be precisely as above described, and continue to emit gas for at least an hour after the cork is drawn.

AERATED MAGNESIA WATER.

N.B.—The Trade supplied as usual, on moderate terms.

Orders from the Country will be immediately attended to.

IMPROVED AND ECONOMICAL WATER FILTERS.

JOHAN DRYDEN & Co. of the Phoenix Pottery, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, beg to inform the Public, that they have appointed Mr JAMES M'KAY, of No. 23, Waterloo Place, Edinburgh, their agent for the sale of the above useful and economical machines, who has just received a large supply, of various sizes, which he offers at the low prices of 12s. to £2, 10s., (nearly two-thirds less than any other Filter offered to the public;) and which, for rendering water perfectly pure, are not to be surpassed by any Filter whatever. An inspection is respectfully requested, and practical proof of their inestimable value will be exhibited to intending purchasers. Country dealers supplied, and a liberal discount allowed.

N.B.—Filters of any description out of order will be fitted up on moderate terms, on Messrs John Dryden & Co.'s improved plan, at 23, Waterloo Place, Edinburgh.

P.S.—To cleanse the Filter, remove any sediment that may collect on the top; take out the sponge, wash it, clean and replace it as before. This is all that is necessary to be done every day, or every other day, according to the state of the water.

FRESH WOOLLEN DRAPERY,

THE GREAT DEPOT, which is entered from ST LEONARD STREET, now contains SIR JOHN HOPE'S NEWCRAIG-HALL COAL, the Marquis of LOTHIAN'S COAL, the ARNISTON COAL, and the EDMONSTONE JEWEL COAL, which is the same as the SHERIFF-HALL JEWEL COAL; so that all the best kinds of Coal in the county are to be had there. The greater part of the Depot is occupied with the private Store-yards of the Great Coal Proprietors, and the vicinity of these Store-yards to the City is of immense importance to the Inhabitants; because the Consumer may obtain his Coal directly from the Coal Proprietor, whose interest it is that the Coal should be sold in a pure state. The Coal sent to the Railway Depot is carefully selected with the hand, and freed from the coarser parts and the dross; wagon loads are frequently returned from the Depot Stores to the Collieries, as unfit to be sold in that great market, where competition makes character and quality so essential. That refuse is bought at the Coal Hills, at a low price, by those dealers whose practices deter them from the Railway Depot; they mix it with some better Coal, and sell the whole as the best of its kind.

The Coal Agents, or Merchants, who hold Offices from the Railway Company, have been strictly looked after, and are believed to be very correct in their dealings. They have, however, no Coal-yards attached to their Offices, so that they have not the power, though they had the desire, to mix and adulterate the Coal. They send it, as ordered, directly from the Stores of the Coal Proprietors; and the weight and quality, as compared with the account or invoice sent to the Consumer, are checked by an Officer appointed by the Railway Company; and the Carters are watched through the narrow streets by one of the Company's Constables.

Consumers of Coals should attend to the following directions; they have been published in all the papers, yet very many, especially housekeepers and servants, are paying no attention to them:—

1st, Never receive a cart of Coals without the Certificate of the Railway Company's Weigher; his name is ROBERT GIBB, and if he should be changed, notice shall be given by advertisement.

2dly, Attend to the hour marked in the Certificate, and if more than an hour after that has elapsed before the Coals are delivered, reject them, for the carter may have been disposing of a part of his load.

3dly, Always keep or destroy the Weigher's Certificate, for if it remains with the carter, he may use it on the same day a second time, to pass another cart of Coals of inferior weight or quality.

4thly, Any person receiving a cart of Railway Coal, may assure himself of its weight and quality, by calling at the Depot, and examining the entry in the Weigher's book, or by writing a note to the Manager of the Railway, mentioning the weight and kind of Coal he had ordered—also the name upon the cart, and the hour of departure contained in the Weigher's Certificate. The Consumer has thus a complete check upon the Coal Merchant or Agent whom he employs, and the Coal Merchant has an equal check upon his carter.

The respectable Coal Merchant has a great advantage by supplying his Customers from the Stores of the Railway Depot, for he saves the expense of keeping a private Store-yard, and of storing, selecting, and loading; and he can always obtain testimony of the honesty of his dealings.

As a check to overcharges, the Prices are occasionally advertised from returns furnished by the Store-keepers of the Coal Proprietors. The difference between the Depot price and the price delivered, consists of Cartage and Agency, which, together, add from 1s. 6d. to 2s. to the Depot price of a cart of Coals.

Those who are not acquainted with any Coal Merchant on whom they can depend, may address orders for Coal to the Railway Office, St Leonard's Depot; and these shall be given to respectable Agents for execution.

CHEMICAL LABORATORY,

CORNER OF LOTHIAN STREET,

(Entry by No. 3, Potterrow.)

MR JOHN DEUCHAR begs leave to thank his Scientific Friends for the liberal patronage he has enjoyed for the last eighteen years, during which he has followed the profession of a CHEMIST and DRUGGIST in all its practical operations, embracing a department of Practical Pharmacy and General Science not previously attempted in Scotland, and which has since been solely followed by himself. Although he has now retired from the Drug business, he begs respectfully to acquaint his Friends, and the Public in general, that he means still to devote a portion of his time to the Manufacture of Chemical Tests and Reagents, and to supplying Institutions and Private Gentlemen with Chemical Apparatus, including some hundred varieties of the Tube, Test, and Miniature Apparatus of his own invention, and of which he solicits an inspection.

Instructions are given at the Laboratory in Chemical Manipulations, in Practical Pharmacy, and in the duties of the Laboratory.

Mr Deuchar also undertakes the analysis of Waters, Minerals, Soils, Products of the Arts, &c.

Orders may be sent either to the Chemical Laboratory as above, or to No. 46, Rankeillor Street.

GENERAL ANNUITY ENDOWMENT ASSOCIATION OF LONDON.

PATRON.—The Rt. Hon. Lord GEORGE SEYMOUR.

THE Subscriber solicits the attention of all, who are in any way interested in providing a safe and easily acquired provision for surviving relatives, to the merits of this Institution, which “provides Annuities,” on a novel principle, “for Widows, Orphans, and other relatives” of the insured.

FOR EXAMPLE,

A Member under Thirty, wishing to provide an annuity (or one share, not to exceed £50) for his Wife, aged Twenty-five, (being a disparity of five years), would pay as follows:

For disparity, (and being in the 2d class,) £0	16	0
Entrance fee,	0	10 0
Certificate of admission, and book of Rules, 0	2	6
Annual premium, (and being in the 2d class,)	2	0 0

Total for the first year, £3 8 6

Each future payment, during the life of the Insurer, will be £2 annually, or 10s. quarterly. A Member may take one, two, or three shares.

Ladies may also become Members, and nominate their children and relatives.

LETTER-PRESS PRINTING MACHINERY.

PRINTERS and PROPRIETORS of NEWSPAPERS are respectfully informed, that they may be supplied, with the utmost promptitude, and on economic terms, with Machinery suitable for every description of Book, Newspaper, and Jobbing Work.

The Machines now submitted to the Trade are manufactured upon the most approved principles, and consist of the best materials and workmanship. In their general construction, they resemble those which have been manufactured for some years past in London, and which have been sold at prices varying from £700 to £1000 each, and upwards; but in substantiality, and general excellence of make and finish, they are incomparably superior to the London machines.

Machinery of this description can be manufactured in Scotland both cheaper and better than it can in London; and, with the view of bringing it into more general use—its price having hitherto been all but prohibitory to houses of ordinary extent of business—the Subscriber has entered into an arrangement with a highly respectable and extensive manufacturing house, (James Brown of Kirkaldy,) possessed of every facility for making these Machines in the best, as well as in the cheapest, manner; into the construction of which, also, several important improvements have been introduced.

A small Steam Engine of first rate quality, suitable for these Machines, is furnished by the same manufacturer for the sum of £60 or £70, according to the style of finish.

Two of Mr Brown's Machines being now erected in Edinburgh—the one in the office of Mr Andrew Shortrede, and the other in that of Mr John Johnstone of the Edinburgh Chronicle, their decided superiority to any thing of the kind previously manufactured, may at once be ascertained by a personal inspection of them, and of the work which they produce.

JOHN GRAY.

7, HENDERSON ROW, June, 1833.

FRENCH LANGUAGE.

MR WELLS begs to intimate, that he has Removed to No. 20, GEORGE STREET, where he has opened Classes for Ladies and Gentlemen.

For the convenience of Gentlemen attending the University, Mr W. continues also to Teach, during a few hours daily, in his Class-Rooms, 63 South Bridge, opposite the College.

FEE, One Guinea per Quarter.

EDINBURGH INSTITUTION FOR LANGUAGES, MATHEMATICS, &c.

THE PREMISES formerly occupied not affording sufficient accommodation for the increased number of Pupils, Mr CUNNINGHAM has taken that Large and Commodious House, No. 3, HILL STREET, to which the Classes were Removed on 1st May last.

Young Gentlemen, who have been attending the Junior Classes at College during the Session now about to close, may find it advantageous to continue their Classical and Mathematical Studies, or to attend Classes for Modern Languages, in the Institution during the College Vacation.

Particulars as to the Classes may be learned by applying at the Institution, or at Mr CUNNINGHAM'S House, 6, Hill street.

ADVERTISING & NEWS AGENCY OFFICE, AT THE OBSERVER OFFICE, 28, HANOVER STREET.

MRS ROBERTSON (Widow of the late David Robertson, Advertising Agent in Edinburgh,) and Mr W. D. SCOTT, beg to intimate, that the ADVERTISING and NEWS AGENCY continues to be conducted by Mr SCOTT, as usual, at No. 28, Hanover street, under the firm of ROBERTSON and SCOTT.

AS ADVERTISING AGENTS, ROBERTSON & SCOTT undertake the insertion of Advertisements, not only in all the EDINBURGH NEWSPAPERS, but also in the LONDON and EDINBURGH GAZETTES, and every other Newspaper in the United Kingdom.

This Establishment is calculated to afford great facilities, and to save much trouble and delay to Gentlemen of the law, Merchants, and Men of Business generally; for, by one order to ROBERTSON and SCOTT, an Advertisement may be conveyed to every Newspaper in the Empire, and the accounts settled by them as charged by the respective Papers, (with the exception of the London Newspapers,) without any Commission or extra expense to the Advertiser; their profit, as Agents, being derived from a Commission allowed by the Newspapers. By this means also, in place of Agents having to pay each individual Newspaper, they have only one account to settle with R. & S. who will always be ready to furnish the respective prices of Advertisements, when required.

Files of the different Newspapers, in which Advertisements are ordered to be inserted, are regularly kept for the inspection of all concerned.

AS NEWS AGENTS, ROBERTSON and SCOTT supply LONDON NEWSPAPERS at the usual prices; and from arrangements which they have lately made with a News Agent in London, they can ensure the regular delivery of Papers.

All Orders from the Country must be accompanied by a respectable reference in Town.

THE MEDICAL HALL,

CONDUCTED BY MESSRS BUTLER & Co. CHEMISTS, No. 73, PRINCE'S STREET, OPPOSITE THE MOUND, EDINBURGH, WHERE PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTIONS AND FAMILY RECIPES ARE COMPOUNDED WITH THE UTMOST CARE.

BUTLER'S COOLING APERIENT POWDERS produce a most refreshing and pleasant effervescent draught, (more efficient than Seidlitz, Soda, or Seltzer Water,) at the same time a safe, mild, and Cooling Aperient, peculiarly adapted to relieve Indigestion, Heartburn, and Nausea, and to counteract Acidity in the Stomach. When taken after too free an indulgence in the luxuries of the table, particularly after too much wine, the usual disagreeable effects are prevented. In boxes, 2s. 9d. Cases, 10s. 6d. and Bottles, 4s. 6d. and 10s. 6d.

BUTLER'S PURE CALCINED MAGNESIA, prepared after a new process, whereby it is perfectly deprived of carbonic acid, freed from taste, smell, grittiness, and every unpleasant property, and the bulk required for a dose is reduced to one-third of that of Calcined Magnesia prepared in the usual way, which renders it more easily miscible in fluids, and less objectionable to Infants, or the weakly stomach of the Invalid. In 2s. 9d. and 10s. 6d. Bottles.

DR GREGORY'S MIXTURE, or AROMATIC STOMACHIC POWDER, prepared by MESSRS BUTLER, with their PURE CALCINED MAGNESIA; which will be found much pleasanter to take than the ordinary preparations of this useful Medicine, and, at the same time, more efficacious as an Antacid and promoter of digestion. In 2s. 9d. and 10s. 6d. Bottles.

AROMATIC SPIRIT OF CAMPHOR, possessing all the virtues of the common Camphorated Spirit, with those of the most esteemed Aromatics. It will be found exceedingly useful to families for making the Camphor Julep, a dessert spoonful to a pint of water instantly forming it. It is recommended by eminent Dentists as the best application for preserving the Teeth and Gums. Bottles 2s. 6d. & 5s. 6d.

BUTLER'S PREPARATION OF LONDON PAREGORIC ELIXIR, according to the last edition of the London Pharmacopoeia, with the addition of the Oil of Aniseed, so generally known for its efficacy in Coughs, &c. Half Pint Bottles, 3s.

ACIDULATED CAYENNE LOZENGES, for habitual Sore Throat; they are also a protection to the Lungs in foggy and damp weather, and a refreshing stimulus during Field Sports, or any exertion accompanied with a sense of Fatigue. Boxes, 2s. and 4s. 6d.

BUTLER'S FLUID EXTRACT OF JAMAICA SARSAPARILLA, simple, (or compound,) for making the decoction, as it may be required, and superior to that generally used. A dessert spoonful will make half a pint of decoction. It is highly esteemed as an Alternative in Scrofula, Scurvy, and Cutaneous Diseases, and as a remedy for the improper use of Mercury. In 4s. 6d. 8s. 6d. and 20s. Bottles.

BUTLER'S DIGESTIVE AND TONIC PILLS, are recommended for all complaints which are occasioned by a loss of tone, or deficient action of the digestive organs, — as impaired appetite, a sense of pain and oppression at the stomach after eating, flatulence, heartburn, and acid eructations, affection of the head and sight, nervous irritability, and depression, costiveness, &c. &c. — Bilious and Gouty subjects, and persons who, from habitually constipated bowels, frequently require an active, at the same time a safe form of Medicine, may advantageously take

BUTLER'S APERIENT AND ANTIBILIOUS PILLS. A constipated habit is a fertile source of derangement of the digestive organs and nervous system, attended with febrile symptoms, bilious attacks, nausea and vomiting, piles, fistula, and numerous complaints frequently leading to fatal disease, and consequently demands timely attention. Two of these pills, taken occasionally at bed time when any of these symptoms are urgent, are productive of great benefit. Boxes, 1s., 2s. 6d., 4s. 6d., and 10s. 6d.

BUTLER'S CITRATED KALI, for making Saline Draughts, recommended for its economy and convenience for this purpose. Bottles, 2s. 6d., 4s. 6d., and 10s. 6d.

CARRONATED EFFERVESCENT HARROWGATE SALTS. These Salts contain all the solid ingredients of the celebrated Springs of Harrowgate, with the important addition of the Volatile Gases in an immediate state of disengagement, by the addition of pure water, and will be found a valuable substitute, proper for all those invalids who are unable to reside at Harrowgate. In 4s. 6d. and 10s. 6d. Bottles.

STOMACHIC AND DIGESTIVE CANDY; of which the principal ingredients are Turkey Rhubarb, Ginger, an Antacid and Carminatives, in such proportions as render it a pleasant Aromatic Stomachic and powerful Digestive. It will be found most serviceable in all those affections originating in an impaired digestion; and also an agreeable gentle Aperient for children. Boxes, 2s. and 4s.

BUTLER'S MORPHIA AND IPECACUANHA LOZENGES; made with the Muriate of Morphia, for recent, nervous, or chronic cough. Sold in 1s. and 2s. Boxes.

VETERINARY MEDICINES.

The Public is respectfully informed, that all kinds of Veterinary Medicines are kept by BUTLER & Co. 73, Prince's Street, Edinburgh. They are invariably formed of Genuine Drugs; and where the aloe enters into the composition, that of Barbadoes is the only kind used. The Recipes from which the Medicines are prepared, are the most approved of those recommended by Veterinary Practitioners of celebrity; and attention has been paid to such forms as remain unchanged by keeping, and are of easy solution in the stomach of the horse: —

Mild Physic Ball; Strong Physic Ball; Mercurial Physic Ball for Worms; Laxative Alternative Ball; Diuretic Alternative Ball; Pectoral Cough Ball; Chronic Cough Ball; Cordial Ball; Strong Blister Ointment; Mild Liquid Blister; Leeming's Essence for Splints. The Medicines of Mr Blaine may be had at the Establishment; also, every article adapted to Veterinary Practice, or that is used by Graziers and Farmers, in the Diseases of Cattle.

INCORRUPTIBLE ARTIFICIAL TEETH.

THERE are some LADIES and GENTLEMEN who make use of ARTIFICIAL TEETH and GUMS, in whose mouths these substitutes, when formed of animal substances, such as the Hippopotamus tusk, &c. and even the best Human Teeth, soon become so soft, discoloured, and offensive, as to require to be very frequently renewed.

In order to meet this serious inconvenience, arising partly from the perishable nature of the substances employed, and partly from acidity, or some peculiar property of the fluids of the mouths in which they are placed,

MR HOGUE, SURGEON-DENTIST,

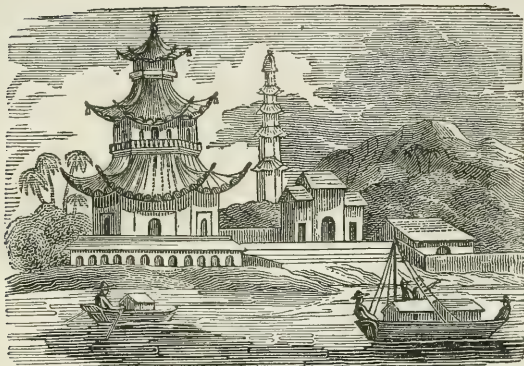

Is happy to state, that, after numberless experiments, conducted and resumed at intervals, during many years, as his professional duties would permit, has at last succeeded in forming Incorruptible Teeth, and also Gums, where requisite, of an entirely new and beautiful Composition, surpassing the French Terra-metallic, and other kinds of Mineral Teeth, in toughness, lightness, and perfectly natural appearance, and not liable like these to break during mastication.

These Incorruptible Teeth and Gums are perfectly unalterable, both as to substance and colour, even in the most unhealthy mouths, and will be found exceedingly useful and economical for all who live at a distance from a Dentist.

Mr H. continues to supply vacancies in the mouth both with Natural Teeth of the best quality, and also with the most approved sorts of Terra-metallic Teeth; and begs particularly to acquaint those Ladies and Gentlemen who wear Upper Sets of Teeth, or Natural Teeth set in sockets formed of the Hippopotamus, or Sea-horse Tusk, and suspended from the palate upon the principle of atmospheric pressure or suction, that he has made a most decided improvement in this mode of fitting Sets of Teeth, which gives them the highest possible degree of adhesion to the palate, to the entire satisfaction of all who have been supplied with Upper Sets fitted upon this principle.

Children's Teeth cautiously regulated during the second Dentition, upon correct Physiological principles, aided by fifteen years' experience. Decayed Teeth carefully stopped, and preserved where practicable; and every operation of Dental Surgery carefully performed.

A COMPENDIUM OF THE DISEASES OF THE HUMAN EYE, to which is prefixed an account of the Anatomy and Physiology of that organ, illustrated with Eighteen Plates, partly coloured. By ALEXANDER WATSON, F.R.C.S.E. &c. Third Edition, in 8vo, with Eighteen Engravings. Price 21s.

"Mr Watson's work exhibits a systematic and comprehensive view of the Diseases of the Human Eye. The descriptions are short, but very clear and distinct; and, as they are manifestly derived chiefly, if not entirely, from personal experience, they shew a talent for observation and pathological acuteness, by no means common."—Edinburgh Medical and Surgical Journal, No. 96.

For Sale, in the Upper Ward of Lanarkshire, and on the Banks of the Clyde; and also to be Feued, in Lots of from 20 to 6 acres each,

THE SOCIAL SYSTEM; a Treatise on the Principle of Exchange. By JOHN GRAY.

EXTRACT FROM THE WORK.

"The specific object of this work is, to state, to prove, to exemplify, and to endeavour to call the attention of the public to the important fact, that it would be by no means difficult to place the commercial affairs of society upon such a footing, that Production would become the uniform and never failing cause of Demand; or, in other words, that to sell goods for money, without any limit or restriction as respects quantity or value, may be rendered, at all times, precisely as easy as it now is to buy them with money."—Social System, p. 16.

EXTRACTS FROM THE PUBLIC PRESS.

"A very clever production."—London Courier.

"Read the book!"—New Monthly Magazine.

"This book well merits an attentive perusal. It contains much which every man interested in the subject will be glad to read and reflect upon; and we do think the System merits a trial."—Metropolitan Magazine.

"In populous and commercial countries teeming with productions, it frequently happens that they exceed the demands, till the markets become glutted, and commerce clogged, with unproductive stock. In such cases, what is to be done? This question is answered by Mr Gray, who proposes a scheme by which demand, instead of being the cause, shall be the consequence of production. The work exhibits much bold and original speculation."—Edinburgh Observer.

"The Lord Chancellor could not have stated Mr Gray's case more clearly than he has done himself. We recommend his work to all who have leisure and taste for such speculations, and wish the latter class were more numerous; and we take leave of Mr Gray with very great respect for his natural abilities, and a much higher opinion of his acquirements than he himself appears to entertain."—Edinburgh Chronicle.

"No one can read this book without having new ideas suggested, or being brought to look upon something in a new light."—Literary Journal.

"An important and philosophic work. It is full of novel views of society, and displays, generally speaking, more correct knowledge on almost every thing connected with political economy, than we ever met with in the compass of a single volume."—Edinburgh Post.

"A very extraordinary book, in which it is proposed to substitute an universal combination for the present system of competition, and thereby to render the demand necessarily commensurate with the supply."—Chambers's Edinburgh Journal.

"The author, being a commercial and a practical man, has treated his subject in a straightforward and intelligible style; and making no drafts whatever on the expected improvement in our moral attainments, nor resting any thing on the hope, that we may ultimately become all of one mind, he has proved, in the most clear and lucid manner, that production may be rendered the uniform and never-failing cause of demand."—Northern Whig.

"Mr Gray does not content himself with throwing out Delphic hints, oracular of what may take place, by some possibility, in some indefinite future, but he goes at once into the quo modo, and shews that the Millenium of the Useful Knowledge Society may as well begin five years hence as five hundred."—Birmingham Journal.

WILLIAM TAIT, Edinburgh; LONGMAN & Co. London; and W. CURRY, jun. & Co. Dublin.

IN THE COURSE OF PUBLICATION,

THE BRITISH LIBRARY,

COMPRISING THE CLASSIC AUTHORS OF GREAT BRITAIN.

Price of each Volume, elegantly printed in Foolscap 8vo. Three Shillings, neatly sewed ;
Three Shillings and Sixpence, in elegant morocco cloth boards.

THE purposes of this important undertaking are fully detailed in the Prospectus, which may be had of every respectable bookseller in the United Kingdom. The following is an outline of the general plan :—

I. The works of the principal authors of Great Britain will be published in monthly volumes, foolscap 8vo. each containing from 320 to 400 pages, and occasionally illustrated with plates and woodcuts, for the sum of THREE SHILLINGS, or elegantly boarded and titled, THREE SHILLINGS and SIXPENCE.

II. A leading object with the Proprietors, and one of the greatest importance to the Public, will be to free the works comprised in the BRITISH LIBRARY, from the numerous errors which abound in even the best editions of our most popular writers, to an extent of which the reader, who passes rapidly over their pages, has often no conception. All such inaccuracies will be corrected by a careful collation of the most approved editions ; various readings will occasionally be introduced, when differences of moment occur ; and, in cases where the lapse of time may have produced obscurity, or the progress of discovery extended or improved our knowledge, notes and illustrations will be added,—the text being always preserved PURE AND WITHOUT ABRIDGMENT. All the more important works will be edited by writers who have already obtained the public confidence.

III. The whole will constitute a series of works, which may be connected and arranged by-indices, afterwards to be given. The undertaking offers also this peculiar advantage, that the writings of each author will be perfect in themselves, and may be purchased separately. Subscribers may thus either form a complete body of English literature, or select those works which are especially adapted to their taste and pursuits, or the condition of their libraries.

IV. The works of each author will be accompanied with a Biographical Memoir, either selected, or written expressly for the BRITISH LIBRARY.

V. In the compass of a Prospectus it would be impossible to explain in detail the order and contents of a publication which is intended to embrace all our great classic writers in Divinity, History, Philosophy, Polite Literature, and Fiction. But that subscribers may previously be assured as to the value of the forthcoming works, lists of those in preparation will be appended to each volume.

OPINIONS OF THE WORK.

"This is the cheapest of all the LIBRARIES."—Spectator.

"What has either Society done equal to this?"—Athenæum.

"Among the great number of LIBRARIES now in course of publication, we feel pleasure in hailing the first volume of one just commenced, under the distinguishing title of the BRITISH. In point of cheapness it is decidedly superior to any similar publication, and its typographical beauty can scarcely be exceeded. To the book-shelves of our juvenile friends, this library will be a valuable acquisition."—Cornwall Gazette.

"Even in these days of cheap publications, we do not hesitate to describe this as the cheapest we have yet seen."—Edinburgh Weekly Journal.

"We are much mistaken if it prove not one of the best speculations of the day. The prospectus is admirably written, and details a plan the best conceived of any that has hitherto appeared, which, if it is acted up to, will be of solid benefit to the public.—This is just taking up the ground that Constable proposed to occupy, but vacated—at a cheaper rate, too, and in a better form of volume. The print and paper are beautiful."—Edinburgh Observer.

"The British Library is by far the cheapest publication of the day, whether we consider the style in which it is got up, the quantity of matter which it contains, or the works which it is intended to embrace. We know of few similar works which have appeared with better prospects of success, and of none more worthy of general support."—Evening Post.

"We have no hesitation in saying, that, for cheapness, elegance, beauty, and correctness of typography, this edition of standard British authors bids fair to distance all competitors yet in the field."—Perthshire Courier.

"The present Library is, however, on a larger scale, and we heartily wish it success. Nothing can be more beneficial to the public mind than the cheap diffusion of our standard English authors."—Inverness Courier.

"Altogether the work outcheaps and outshines all that have ever gone before it. The wonder is, as the Athenæum justly remarks, 'how so much elegant typography can be sold for the money.'"—Chambers's Historical Newspaper.

"Every one really bent on self-improvement—every one intent on forming a collection of works, whose value is certain, and can never be diminished—every parent of a rising family, for whom he is desirous of providing pure and profitable reading—and every true lover of his country and of mankind, whose real progress in mental excellence depends not on the flimsy or inflammatory scribbling of the day, but on staid and standard writings,—will best effect his purpose by giving that support to The British Library, to which, upon all these accounts, it is so justly entitled."—Ayr Observer.

"While some of our great publishers are periodically putting forth original works on subjects of present interest, and others are laying open the stores of ancient Greek and Roman literature, and by translation rendering them available to the general public, the enterprising proprietors of the BRITISH LIBRARY are rendering no less service to the cause of improvement, by disseminating the beautiful and standard works of our own country among its inhabitants,—and that at a cost so extremely small as can only remunerate them by a very extensive sale. The noblest productions of British genius are thus placed within the reach of the humblest British subject, while the style of elegance in which the volumes are brought out, render them fit for the libraries of the great and wealthy.

"It must be admitted that, what with cheap reprints of works of the day, and translations of the ancient classics, our own standard works have been too much neglected, and therefore we consider that such a cheap republication of these as will ensure them a general circulation, is the greatest literary boon that can be conferred upon the British public."—Observer.

"Our only wonder is, not that the circulation will be most extensive, but how any circulation, at such a price, can possibly remunerate its most enterprising proprietors. Should their patriotic and praiseworthy intentions be accomplished, we shall have all our best works reproduced to us in a style worthy of their authors, and at a price within any one's reach."—The Citizen.

We have already given our unqualified approbation to the plan of this series; and its execution has hitherto equalled our expectations.—Weekly Journal.

WORKS PUBLISHED.

WHITE'S NATURAL HISTORY OF SELBORNE;

OBSERVATIONS ON NATURE, AND THE NATURALIST'S CALENDAR.

With Woodcuts by BONNER,

And Notes by Captain THOMAS BROWN, F.L.S.

"There are hundreds of notes; and these, added to the admitted worth of the original work, illustrated with numberless woodcuts, all to be had for Three Shillings!" [sewed.]—Athenæum.

"The work is illustrated by a variety of amusing miscellaneous notes from the pen of Captain Thomas Brown; and makes a marvellously low-priced volume. There are, among the other charms of the edition, a few woodcuts of birds, some of them of almost Bewick-like beauty and liveliness."—Tail's Magazine.

"Here is White's Selborne—one of the most interesting volumes of natural history in our language—which sells in the 8vo. edition at Sixteen Shillings,—complete, with the addition of copious annotations by Captain Brown, adding a third to the bulk of the volume, and illustrated by a number of excellent woodcuts, for the sum of Three Shillings and Sixpence!" [boards.]—Cornwall Gazette.

"Were it possible for us to speak in the threefold capacity of reviewers, fathers of families, and teachers, our honest opinion would be, that we are not acquainted with any volume which we would sooner recommend to a friend, a child, or a pupil, than this first publication of The British Library."—Ayr Observer.

"The edition before us is decidedly the best and most complete which has yet been given to the public. We have compared it with a recent reprint, edited by several eminent naturalists, and published at five times the price of the present volume; but there is no question that the present edition is in every way preferable, both as regards the matter embraced in the work, and the illustrations which accompany it. Captain Brown has added many valuable and elaborate notes, which bring down the history of the various discoveries to the present day. Indeed, the new portion of the present edition is fully equal to the quantity of matter contained in the original work."—Evening Post.

In Four Volumes.

WITH PORTRAIT AND VIGNETTES, A NEW LIFE, NOTES, INDEX, &c.

"The British Library has published, as its second work, the Miscellaneous Writings of Oliver Goldsmith, in four volumes. This is the cheapest of all the Libraries. Think of four ornamental volumes in green morocco, or morocco-like binding, gilt-lettered, and crammed with letter-press, leaving the publisher's counter for half a crown the volume, or less! The price to the public is three shillings per volume [sewed]; that is to say, for twelve shillings, the lover of the finest specimens of English genius and the English language may possess himself of the Plays, the Essays, the Poems, and the Vicar of Wakefield, of Oliver Goldsmith."—Spectator.

"The present volumes, besides containing all the original productions collected in former editions of his works, are enriched with several additional pieces and letters, and various readings are also introduced for the first time. The edition is farther enhanced by a concise, but comprehensive, life of the author, written by its editor, who has also added many important and interesting notes, and who has altogether executed his task with great judgment and ability."—Edinburgh Observer.

"The Life of the author deserves to be noticed as one of the most elegant specimens of biographical composition, we do not hesitate to say, in the language."—Historical Newspaper.

"The present edition is one which we hesitate not to pronounce the most complete that has yet been offered to the public. It not only contains all the pieces which have appeared in former editions, but boasts of several new pieces which are now inserted for the first time. We are also here presented with the various readings of certain of his more celebrated poems—a feature in this edition by no means unimportant to the student of literature; and what is perhaps still more interesting, we have prefixed to it one of the best biographical Memoirs of Goldsmith—a Memoir which rests on less questionable authority than many of its predecessors, and which paints the eccentricities of a life which had been passed in a singular alternation of idleness and extraordinary exertion, of great privation and luxurious enjoyment, of dependent beggary and the most boundless extravagance. It perhaps may not be deemed unimportant to state, that the volumes now before us meet, in every sense of the word, the economising views of the present day. They are, in fact, at once suitable to the tastes of the rich and the purses of the poor; and we have, therefore, every hope that their spirited publishers will obtain the patronage of the public towards a work which ought assuredly to be found in every library."—Argus.

"Beauty of typography, and general correctness, with notes, which, though concise, are admirably illustrative, make this edition of one of our best classics especially valuable."—Weekly Journal.

"In the four volumes now under notice, we are presented with the cheapest and most complete edition of Goldsmith's Miscellaneous Works—a publication which has long been popular amongst all classes of readers. The external appearance and typography of the work will render it an ornament to any library, and no inappropriate companion to the drawing-room table. We have no doubt that it will supersede all previous editions of the same works, while it will confer upon them additional claims to extensive circulation.

"This edition has been placed under the superintendence of a new editor, who has discharged his task with talent and fidelity. The memoir of Dr Goldsmith is remarkably full, and has been carefully digested; so that none but facts of undoubted authenticity have been embodied in its pages. The authorities are specifically named in every instance. A vast number of interesting notes are strewn throughout the volumes, and various readings are interspersed. The different editions have been diligently collated, to secure accuracy in the text; in short, no pains have been spared to render the book thoroughly correct and complete."—Evening Post.

"The price of the whole series of the author's writings will not exceed the sum which would have been asked and obtained for a single volume such as the present. We may just observe, that the life and notes added by the editor are full and useful, and as to the choice displayed by the publisher, it is enough to remind the reader of Byron's remark,—'I look upon Pope and Goldsmith as the Christianity of English Poetry.'"—Ayr Observer.

OBSERVATIONS.

The principles upon which this Institution is founded have been adopted, after a mature investigation of the practice of other Offices, and will be found to combine advantages not hitherto offered by any other Assurance Company having a Subscribed Capital.

The Capital, subscribed by a numerous and respectable Proprietary throughout the Empire, affords security for prompt and certain Indemnity, without the responsibility attaching to Societies for mutual assurance.

The Company are bound, by the Deed of Settlement, to refer all disputed claims (where no fraud is suspected) to the decision of arbitrators, if required by the Assured.

Life Policies of this Society may be sold, transferred, or mortgaged, without any notice being given at the Office; and in all minor articles the utmost liberality will be afforded to the Public, consistently with the security of the Company.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The Premiums charged by this Company on the Three ordinary Classes of Fire Insurance are (with certain exceptions) as follows, viz.—

1st Class, 1s. 6d. per cent per ann. formerly, 2s.

2d do. 2s. 6d. 3s.

3d do. 4s. 6d. 5s.

OTHER RISKS NOT FALLING WITHIN THE ABOVE CLASSES, MAY BE INSURED BY SPECIAL AGREEMENT.

The allowance of 10 per cent, which has been made on the Premiums paid on Policies of seven years' standing, is the surest proof of the unprecedented success of this Institution.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

Independent of a reduced rate of Premium, as compared with other Offices having a subscribed Capital, Insurers for the whole term of life are entitled, at the end of seven years, to participate in the profits with the original Subscribers, either by an addition made to the amount of their Policies, or by a reduction of their future Annual Premiums, at the option of the Insurers. The additions so allowed at the last Septennial Division amounted, on an average, to more than one per cent per annum on the sums insured.

Persons insured in this Office are allowed to pass by sea from one part of the United Kingdom to another; and also, in time of peace, to pass in decked vessels, or steam-boats, from British to Foreign Ports, between the Texel and Brest, (both inclusive,) without extra premium, or special leave of the Directors, as is usually required.

No additional premium required from Military Men, unless when called into actual service.

No charge made for Entrance Money or Admission Fees; and none for Policies, beyond the cost of the stamp.

THE CALEDONIAN INSURANCE

COMPANY offers to the public the security of an ample subscribed capital as a Guarantee Fund, together with all the advantages resulting from a participation of profits on the mutual assurance plan, without the risk which attends every such scheme in the outset; while, for the convenience of those who prefer a certain future benefit at a low rate of premium, the Company grants Policies without participation either for the whole period of Life, or for short periods, at corresponding rates of Premium. These advantages are not exceeded by the terms of even the most favoured establishments either for security or liberality.

Tables of Rates to be had by applying at the Office. No charge is made for Entrance Money.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The Company insures Houses, Manufactories, Rents, Furniture, Goods, and Merchandise, Farming Stock, Shipping in Port and Dock, and while building, or used in Navigable Canals, and all other Property, from Loss and Damage by Fire upon the following terms:

COMMON INSURANCES, at an Annual Premium of 1s. 6d. per cent.

HAZARDOUS INSURANCES, at an Annual Premium of 2s. 6d. per cent.

DOUBLY HAZARDOUS INSURANCES, at an Annual Premium of 4s. 6d. per cent.

Risks not comprehended under these classes may be insured by special agreement.

SCOTTISH EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY.

THIS is a Society for Mutual Assurance, on the model of that eminently successful and celebrated institution, the Equitable Assurance Society of London. It has been demonstrated by the experience of the Equitable and every other Life Office, that the existing rates of contribution or premium are adequate, not merely to payment of the sums assured, but also to afford a large surplus fund or profit.

In the Scottish Equitable all these profits are divisible periodically amongst the policy holders, who are thus assured upon the most advantageous terms possible; for it must be obvious to any one who will consider the subject, that as the policy holders do themselves exclusively derive the whole benefit arising from the surplus by which the contributions or premiums exceed what may be absolutely necessary for paying the sums specifically assured, this is equivalent to assuring them at the lowest possible rate. Whatever they contribute beyond the sum absolutely indispensable, reverts to them in the shape of bonus. Beyond all question, therefore, it is more beneficial to join this Society than to resort to any proprietary company, because it is inherent in every such company to retain and appropriate to its partners either the whole of the profits, or a large share thereof. Whoever, therefore, resorts to a proprietary office in preference to a mutual assurance society, makes an injudicious choice, and a great sacrifice.

The SCOTTISH EQUITABLE ASSURANCE SOCIETY has been eminently prosperous, and there can be no doubt that at the first periodical division, a large bonus will be declared.

Every facility and accommodation which any life establishment can safely afford to those who transact with it, will be given to members of the Society.

CAPITAL, TWO MILLIONS STERLING.
(ESTABLISHED MARCH, 1824.)

THIS Society is established upon principles affording important advantages to the assured, combined with perfect security; a deposit of ten per cent of the capital, amounting to Two Hundred Thousand Pounds, having been paid up by the shareholders, which is held as a guarantee fund for claims.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The Assured are entitled to one-third of the Profits, without any liability on their part to the losses.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

The Assured are entitled to two-thirds of the Profits, without any liability on their part to the losses.

The Premiums charged are lower than those of the majority of other offices.

The business of the Life Department is kept distinct from that of the Fire; and the Life Assurance Fund is not liable to make good any losses arising from the Fire Assurance business.

No part of the accumulations of the Life Assurance fund is appropriated for payment of interest to the shareholders.

EDINBURGH, 15th May, 1833.

NORWICH UNION LIFE AND FIRE INSURANCE SOCIETIES.

LIFE SOCIETY.

ESTABLISHED 1808.

In considering the numerous Establishments, formed and forming, for carrying on the business of Life Insurance, the public attention is called to the following leading points relative to this establishment :—

First,—That it ranks, in point of business, above every other Life Insurance Office, except the Equitable Society of Bridge Street, Blackfriars, London.

Second,—That from the great extent of its business, the advantage of an average decrement of life, so essential to the prosperity of a Life Insurance Office, is secured.

Third,—The security of an accumulated Fund of upwards of One Million Three Hundred Thousand Pounds, in addition to an annual Income of Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Pounds per annum.

Fourth,—The distribution of all its profits with the Insurers for the whole period of life, whatever may be their age at entrance, and these profits have been declared at three different periods of investigation, amounting to Twenty per cent at June, 1816 ; Twenty-four per cent at July, 1823 ; and Twenty-five per cent at July, 1830,—in all Sixty-nine per cent, thus affording to the public a very strong inducement to become members.

Fifth,—The reduction of its rates, which is equivalent to an annual bonus.

Sixth,—The insured are permitted to go in steam, or other decked vessels, to and from any part of the United Kingdom ; and, in time of peace, to and from any part of the Continent, situate between the Elbe and Brest, without being required to pay any additional premium, or procure a license from the Directors.

FIRE SOCIETY.

THIS SOCIETY WAS ORIGINALLY ESTABLISHED IN 1797.

Insurances are granted by this Society on buildings, goods, merchandize, and effects, ships in port, harbour, or dock, from loss or damage by Fire, in Edinburgh and Leith, or in any other part of the United Kingdom.

It is provided by the constitution of the Society, that the insured shall be free from all responsibility ; and to guarantee the engagements of the office, a fund of £550,000 has been subscribed by a numerous and opulent proprietary.

Persons insuring for a term of years, and paying in advance the premium and duty, are allowed an immediate discount, proportioned to the number of years for which the Policy is effected.

Expenses incurred by the removal of goods, in case of fire, will be defrayed, in proportion to the amount insured.

Losses by Fire occasioned by lightning will be made good.

No charge is made for policies (unless the sum insured is below £300,) or for indorsements, or alterations.

It is a part of the constitution of the Society, that losses may be substantiated before local committees, —a system which greatly facilitates the prompt settlement of claims.

The Fire Society is wholly distinct from the Life.

In proof of the public confidence in the principles and conduct of this Establishment, it may be sufficient to state, that the duty for the year ending on the 25th March last, amounted to £68,356, 18s. 2d. ; and that the total business of the Society now exceeds FORTY-EIGHT MILLIONS.

The Large Accumulated Capital and Annual Revenue of this Institution, (which, as a Life Assurance Association, is the oldest and most extensive in point of business in Scotland,) enables the Directors to offer to the Public the full advantages arising from the principle of its Constitution, combined with the utmost measure of SECURITY.

The great value of the principle of mutual contributionship, or, as it is generally termed, MUTUAL ASSURANCE, on which this Society is founded, is now well known. By the operation of this principle, taken in connection with the careful selection of lives, and an economical management of the Society's business, it is evident that the advantages of Life Assurance are secured to their utmost possible extent. Indeed, they only require to be known and understood to be fully appreciated; and so rapid accordingly has been the growth of this Society, that, during the last fourteen years, the annual revenue has increased from £2300 to SIXTY-FIVE THOUSAND POUNDS STERLING per annum, and the accumulated Fund from £3000 to THREE HUNDRED AND TWENTY THOUSAND POUNDS STERLING; and both are in a state of steady and rapid increase.

The President, Vice-Presidents, Trustees, and Directors, are all personally interested in the Society, and must, in terms of the articles of Constitution, be members of more than three years' standing.

The last periodical investigation of the Society's affairs took place at 31st December, 1831, when large additions by way of Bonus were declared to the Assurances entitled thereto. In order to shew the value of the additions made out of the Surplus Fund, the following particulars are given of the claim arising under a policy opened in 1819, if emerging in the current year by the death of the party assured:

Sum originally assured,	£1000 0 0
Vested additions up to 31st December, 1831,	392 6 0
	£1392 6 0
Contingent prospective additions applying to the annual premiums paid for 1832 & 1833,	41 15 4
Total sum payable	£1434 1 4

At the next periodical investigation, the additions then declared will become immediately vested and absolute, on all Assurances entitled to such participation, effected during the current year.

The ordinary Court of Directors meet weekly for the purpose of receiving and deciding on applications for Assurance, which are now granted to the extent of £5000, on approved single or joint lives.

Tables of rates of Premium, and every necessary information, will be readily communicated on application at the Society's office.

GEORGE KINNEAR, Esq. — JOHN MOWBRAY, Esq. — *Trustees.*THE ROYAL BANK OF SCOTLAND, MESSRS ALEXANDER ALLAN & Co. — *Bankers.*HENRY & D. JOHNSTON, M.D. — DAVID MACLAGAN, M.D. — *Consulting Physicians.*MESSRS ELLIS & KNOX, — Solicitors.

This National Institution comprises the principal influence in Scotland among its numerous Proprietary, and affords unquestionable security to the Public by the magnitude of its Capital. Established on a broad and solid basis, it has been enabled, by the unexampled support which it has received, to conduct its operations on a larger scale than its competitors in North Britain.

The Capital Stock of the Scottish Union Company cannot at any period be endangered, according to any calculable human hazard; and all persons insured with this Company may rest in absolute certainty, that, whenever a claim shall arise, ample means will be always available to satisfy it with promptitude; and that the principles by which this Institution is regulated will provide resources for the liberal adjustment of every demand.

From a variety of causes, there is of late years a decided increase in the mean duration of life, in many parts of Europe; an improvement, however, which it is extremely probable has been exaggerated. It has been the earnest endeavour of the Directors and Manager to ascertain how far the results of experience might be rendered beneficial to the Public, without giving any cause to suppose that, in so doing, they were actuated by a dangerous spirit of competition. In adopting, for the basis of Life computations, the Mean Standard Table of the Decrement of Life in Great Britain, in 1824, as published in the Philosophical Transactions, their motives cannot be questioned. A fair estimate of the duration of life, in the country wherein the persons to be assured reside, is attained on scientific principles; and the Public is justly entitled to all the benefit of the investigation.

It will be found on examination, that the Directors have thought themselves justified in making some reduction in favour of the Public from the basis thus adopted, in consideration of local circumstances.

Young and middle-aged persons are accordingly assured at reduced rates, by which they derive, upon the best and most equitable footing, an immediate and certain advantage.

Prudence dictates to every man, who is anxious to provide for his family, to effect his Insurance at the lowest premium, combined with perfect security. If he become an insurer in this Company, his object will be completely attained. The Directors, therefore, have every confidence that the reduced rates, and the superior security of the Scottish Union Company, will obtain a continuance of that distinguished support from the Public which it has hitherto experienced.

TABLES OF RATES, and explanation of any description of Fire and Life Assurance, may be had at the Company's Office, No. 47, George Street, Edinburgh, or from any of the Company's agents in the country, a list of whom is published in the Edinburgh Almanack.

F. G. SMITH, Secretary.

Gray's Edinburgh Directory.

FIRST PUBLICATION.

THE book that was published last year, bearing the name of GRAY'S EDINBURGH DIRECTORY, was professedly a re-arrangement of matter contained in another work, and, as such, was intended merely as a supplementary publication. There was nothing in it new; but taking the names, right or wrong, as they stood in the Post Office Directory, they were transferred to the pages of the other, under two different arrangements.

The case this year is otherwise. Assuming the highest ground, and professing to give a Directory inferior to no one that has ever been published, either in Scotland or any where else, and assuming the task of collecting all the names for insertion in it, the Editor is now in every way responsible for the plan of his work, as well as for the manner of its execution. Under these circumstances, this Directory for the present year must be considered, in every respect, a first publication; and, as such, it claims the indulgences usually awarded to first appearances of every kind, whilst, at the same time, it hopes to require them only to a very small extent. The delay of a few days in the appearance of the book beyond the time originally intended—the 14th instant—has been owing entirely to the multitudinous petty difficulties inseparable from the contriving and arranging of a first work of this kind. But the book being now reduced to its intended form, it will only, in future years, require correction, and will therefore be published without difficulty, on or about the 14th of June, sooner than which period, its appearance is impracticable, consistently with any thing like an approach to accuracy.

To meet the various and dissimilar purposes for which a Directory is required, three arrangements of the names appear to be necessary,—Alphabetical, District, and Classified; and the manner in which these are given in the present publication is as follows:—

Assuming Edinburgh, Leith, Newhaven, Portobello, Fisherrrow, Musselburgh, and Duddingston, with their respective immediate vicinities, as ground sufficiently comprehensive for all the purposes of an Edinburgh Directory—the four latter places having been included in consequence of their present legal, as well as local connection with the city—the entire names are given,—first, in one general Alphabetical List—secondly, in one general District List—and thirdly, in one general Classification of Professions, Trades, and Designations.

And these three divisions, as leading to no perplexity or confusion of parts, are presumed to be incomparably preferable to a minute subdivision of the book into a separate Directory for each place.

On the Alphabetical arrangement there is nothing to remark, except that the generally supposed difficulty of collecting the names for insertion in a work of this kind is all ideal,—there is little or no difficulty in it. This year, indeed, some trouble has been experienced in consequence of the novelty of the employment to all the persons engaged in it; but another year the task will be mere child's play, and even now the book, as a whole, is confidently submitted as more correct than any work of the kind previously published here. Positive, unexceptionable correctness in a Directory is out of the question; but as few errors will, it is presumed, be found even in this first attempt, as commonly occur in similar books comprehending a like extent of space, and an equal number of names.

And it is not to be supposed, when errors do occur, that they are altogether attributable to us. On the contrary, nine-tenths of them are owing to the almost incredible carelessness of individuals, who, from an innate propensity to do every thing by halves, or quarters, as the case may be, make a few scratches with pen or pencil on the paper left with them, and leave it for the Editor to divine the meaning thereof as best he may. One method of giving in the names for insertion is worthy of notice: Not less than a dozen papers have been sent to this office with the following very laconic instruction,—“The same as last year,”—without the addition of a solitary syllable by way of clue to the writers' names or designations!

The sub-division of the ground into Districts, or ranges of streets, is given in the manner of last year—the plan of the districts themselves being a little altered and improved—as being infinitely more useful than an alphabetical arrangement of the streets. The former plan throws Abercromby Place, Heriot Row, and Moray Place together; whilst the latter would conjoin Moray Place with Morningside, and Heriot Row with Hermitage. Moreover, the district plan, aided by an index, will be found to answer all the purposes served by the alphabetical, whilst the alphabetical would answer no one purpose of the district arrangement.

In like manner Classes of Trades are placed in juxtaposition in the third list, in preference to the alphabetical arrangement of them, adopted some years since by Mr Pigot, and now imitated by the Post Office. The General Index at the beginning of this book contains a recapitulation of its entire contents; so that there never can be the slightest difficulty in finding any trade. But, even without the aid of an index, it would be easier to find trades arranged in classes, than by the alphabet, for the reason that almost every trade has half a dozen names. Men who sell medicines, for example, call themselves variously by the names of chemists, druggists, apothecaries, hygeists, pharmacopeists, &c. To find our friend of many names in the commercial dictionary must, it is obvious, be a difficult task, unless we happen to be previously acquainted with his favourite appellation; whilst, by the plan of the present volume, there can be no difficulty; for, turn to whichever variety of the name we may, we shall assuredly find the man of medicine in the neighbourhood.

It is easy to account for the predilection of the Post Office folks in favour of the alphabetical plan: the truth is, that they have been at the alphabet all their lives, and there appears now to be no hope of their ever getting beyond it.

The fourth part of the book, devoted to Miscellaneous Information, will be found very generally useful. Some of the lists are indeed susceptible of improvement in future years, it being much easier to correct and amend, than to frame anew matter of this description. They may, however, be fully depended on as being generally correct.

The Post Office department, for example, was corrected in the Post Office, by order of the highest authority: the Bank lists were corrected by the Edinburgh Banks, a proof copy being handed to each of them, and returned with numerous corrections: the Tide Tables, framed expressly for this work in their present form, were furnished by Mr Trotter—see his note respecting them at the beginning of the book: the Coach, Shipping, Steam Vessel, and Carriers' Lists were revised at the respective offices: the Assessed Taxes have been carefully re-written; and, in short, neither pains nor expense have been spared in the endeavour to render this division of the book acceptable to the public.

The fifth part of the Directory—the Advertising Department—contains a variety of miscellaneous annunciations. Here, as in the House of Commons, every man advocates his own peculiar views and interests, upon which it would be somewhat impertinent in us to remark. In consequence, however, of the speeches being altogether typographical, instead of oracular, it will not be necessary to “hear, hear!” but merely to read, read! which we strenuously recommend to all.

The Map of Edinburgh challenges comparison with any Map ever published in a Directory. It has been got up at a very serious expense, and will, we feel assured, be generally admired for its neatness and valued for its correctness and utility. The plan of finding the places by means of a common centre, surrounded by a progressive number, will be found preferable to any other method. See the Table of Contents for farther explanation on this point: see also there a note respecting the Reform bill, and City boundaries.

For the information of those who may not have perused the Prospectus of this Directory, issued some time since, it is necessary to state that this plan of Edinburgh intentionally omits the Architectural Prophecies. To use the words of the said Prospectus:—

“It can hardly have escaped the notice of the most casual observer, that, in the existing Maps of Edinburgh, there is a splendid city on the south side of Leith Walk, extending almost as far as Lochend; a locality, notwithstanding this, however, at present, most rurally devoted to the feeding of sheep, and to the culture of the staff of life; whilst, in the self same Maps, Newington—essentially as much a part of Edinburgh as the Tron Church, and consisting of several beautiful streets,—is altogether omitted.

“The explanation of this is, that the said Maps are, for the most part, mere transcripts of each other, the serious expense of an original drawing of the whole town being in general most conveniently avoided.

“Gray's Annual Directory for 1833-34, will correct this anomaly; and, at the same time, it will supply a desideratum which has long been felt to be such in this metropolis.

“Dismissing the fruitless endeavour to represent Edinburgh as it may be a hundred or a thousand years hence, arrangements have been made, at a very serious expense, to obtain a correct and complete drawing of Edinburgh and its Environs, and a Map is now in course of preparation, by which the City and Suburbs will be represented as they really are. It will contain every thing which is built, and nothing which is not built.”

The manner in which the aforesaid intention has been executed may be seen at page 168; and, with respect to the Prophecies, the steel plate, from which the Map is printed, being large enough for the reception of them all, our intention is to give them in future years, in the precise order in which they may be fulfilled.

The General Index contains a complete reference to the entire contents of the book, as well as to the situations of the various places in the Map; and the pagings, three in number, require only the explanation that will be afforded by a momentary glance. The first paging with a * added to each number is never referred to in the Index.

The Binding.—In case any one should suppose that a somewhat needless expenditure has been made upon the exterior of this book,—a feeling which would not operate very much in its favour amongst the more sensible part of the community,—it will be as well to set him right upon the subject. A book of this size could not be well boarded for less than sixpence. The cost of binding it in the manner in which it is now presented, is precisely one shilling. The additional charge for binding being, therefore, only sixpence, another word in defence of it is deemed unnecessary.

As a whole, it is hoped that the plan and contents of Gray's Directory for this year are calculated to give general satisfaction, and to ensure a continuance of that encouragement which has been so liberally awarded on the present occasion. The edition of Gray's Directory last year, — the plan different, as already described, — was thirteen hundred: the edition this year is twenty-eight hundred. The number of advertisements inserted last year was twenty-five: the number this year approaches nearly to seventy; for which very flattering increase of patronage our thanks are due, and most respectfully tendered. In future years, the plan and contents will be substantially the same as at present, but such additions and improvements will from time to time be introduced, as consideration may give rise to, or experience suggest.

One word with respect to another publication: — Had there existed, twelve months since, any thing resembling a complete Directory of Edinburgh and its environs, the Editor of this Directory is the last person in existence to have troubled himself with the attempt to establish one; but there was none: the deficiency was most obvious, and he therefore resolved to supply it. But after the prospectus of this Directory was published, and not till then, another intimation appeared from the publishers of the Edinburgh Alphabet, stating in substance that they now were disposed to bestir themselves; and forthwith followed a prospectus containing, in general terms, a copy of the plan described in the previously published prospectus of this book. The result of their labours is now, however, before the public, who, if we mistake not, will pronounce it to be — a miserable failure.

The answer to the alphabeticals is obvious, — they should have exerted themselves sooner: it is now too late; for the ground, previously open to them, is occupied, and by those, too, who will not easily be driven from it.

With a view to the permanent existence of this publication, a large outlay has already been incurred. One hundred guineas have been expended in the purchase of a piece of steel a few inches square; the printer has supplied himself with types selected expressly for the printing of the work; and various other expensive arrangements have been made which cannot and shall not be retracted.

With respect to the select portion of the letter carriers who participate in the profits of the other Directory, there can be no rational ground of especial favour to them. If philanthropic motives be allowed to enter into the purchase of a book — the rationality of which we altogether deny — let them be really philanthropic, and again we lay claim to the best title to encouragement. For the last three months the Editor of this Directory has, off and on, had about a dozen really necessitous persons in his employment; to say nothing of the best half of a thousand pounds sterling having been expended principally amongst journeymen engravers, compositors, pressmen, bookbinders, &c. Surely Government can afford to pay its own servants; if not, let it raise the indirect taxes, — since it is the fact, whatever Joseph Hume, Esq. M. P. may say to the contrary, that, the higher they are, the easier they are paid, and ever will be, until the present monetary system of society be totally changed, — and then it can afford to raise the postmen's wages; or housekeepers, who may all be enriched by the same process, will be the better enabled to give their postman half-a-crown each at Christmas.

"Another last word" upon this subject, — So long as Edinburgh was content to receive for its Directory, an annual alphabetical list of the names of its principal inhabitants, the publishing thereof was all very well in the hands of persons, who, from the nature of their other avocations, could only attend to it as a secondary, or subsidiary employment. But if the time have arrived, — and their is strong reason for believing that it has done so, — when something very superior to a mere alphabetical list of names is required to gratify the public taste, the task of supplying it can only be satisfactorily performed by those who can devote, pro tempore, their exclusive attention to it. In other words, — if the Letter Carriers and their Inspector can compete with the subscriber, with the least prospect of success, for the editorship of the Edinburgh Directory — for two Directories of Edinburgh cannot long exist — their duties in another quarter must be very light.
